In conjunction with the 2023 Quills Conference theme, “Writing Dangerously,” the League of Utah Writers Press is proud to announce the call for submissions for our 2023 League-wide anthology:

We Are Dangerous

We invite you to explore what it means to be dangerous through short fiction, poetry, and personal essays in any genre. Send us your pieces about dangerous thinkers, dangerous ideas, dangerous monsters – if “danger” is your submission’s middle name, we want to see it.

Please carefully read the following guidelines, then upload your submission using the form at the bottom of this page.

Submissions open Saturday, October 1, 2022 and close at 11:59 pm Mountain time on Tuesday, January 31, 2023.

Rules and Guidelines

- 5,000 word maximum, hard limit
- Poetry, flash fiction, short stories, and personal essays welcome
- All genres
- Submissions must:
  - Be in .doc, .docx, or .rtf format
  - Use a 12-point standard font
  - Be double spaced with one-inch margins
  - Contain no personal identifying information, including author name, anywhere in the file (including the file name)
- Unpublished works only
- Multiple submissions: No
  - Please send us your best work—only one entry per author
- Simultaneous submissions: Yes
  - We particularly encourage you to also submit your work to the League of Utah Writers Woolley Awards Contest, for which your work will still be eligible even if selected for inclusion in We Are Dangerous.
- You must be a League of Utah Writers member in good standing for the entirety of the publication process (October 2022 - August 2023)
  - If you are not sure if your membership is active, please email membership@leagueofutahwriters.org
- We are not looking for stories which include graphic rape and/or sexual assault, or which promote ableism, racism, sexism, homophobia, or transphobia

Selected submissions will be paid $0.03 per word (or a flat rate of $15 for accepted poetry) and will receive a print copy of the anthology.
